

User Guide to the payment and installing of the license key

Payment of the license key

Once you have downloaded and installed the program on a computer, you need to pay for, obtain and install a license key. Currently, payment can be made through the payment service and PayPal in rubles or dollars.

To go to the purchase of a license key, you should visit the page of our site, from which you downloaded this User Guide and in the section Buy the license key (Купить лицензионный ключ) click on the link PayPal. In the opened form you must enter the e-mail address to which, the license key will be sent after payment. Then click on the button Оплатить сейчас or Pay Now, respectively. You will be moved to the payment service page, where, following the instructions, pay a license key.

License key installation

To install a license key, perform the following:

1. Make sure your computer is connected to the Internet.
